

Registered Practitioner

To qualify as a CRA Registered Practitioner, the applicant will have studied and completed an 8 hour minimum of Level I (1st degree) Reiki class and will have completed the required case studies. They will complete the application form, sign and agree to abide by the CRA Code of Ethics, Disciplinary Action Policy, Code of Conduct & Scope of Practice forms.

Registered Teacher

To qualify as a CRA Registered Teacher, the applicant will have studied and have successfully completed the minimum teaching requirements for the style of Reiki they studied. This may consist of three or four levels of training depending on their Lineage. It will not be less than three levels consisting of a minimum of twenty eight hours of training in total. The applicant will submit all required documents which includes a signed Code of Ethics, Disciplinary Action, Code of Conduct, Scope of Practice, Educational Guidelines, and Class Outlines.

The Canadian Reiki Association upholds the membership to a strict Code of Ethics, Code of Conduct, Disciplinary Action Policy and Educational Guidelines, to ensure that all Registered Teachers and Registered Practitioners adhere to excellence and ethical practice. As a Registered Teacher you will agree to abide by and continually support your students. We encourage our teachers to host one student practice night per month for the purpose of issuing C.E.U.'s to student members.

All Registered Teacher applicants must submit copies of their class outlines in theory and practical for review and approval by the Board of Directors. Class outlines and all required signed documents may be submitted by email in PDF to:

reiki@reiki.ca or mailed to the C.R.A.

C.R.A. Registered Teachers visibly display their CRA Designation and Registration number on every certificate they issue to their students.

Example:

CRA-RT 01-054 will be displayed with their name.

To Apply for Membership

Carefully read the Membership Criteria for each level of membership, especially if you are applying as a Registered Practitioner or a Registered Teacher.

Complete the appropriate Membership Application forms, sign and date all required documentation for your level of membership

If you are applying as a Registered Practitioner or Teacher you may request a web listing.

Reiki Masters applying as a Registered Teacher, you will print and sign the Educational Guidelines as well and carefully read the additional Membership Criteria at www.reiki.ca/criteria.htm. Plus you will must submit copies of your class outlines in theory and practical for review for all levels of Reiki.

Determine your membership fee:

Supportive Member	$ 35 + tax
Student Member	$ 35 + tax
Registered Practitioner	$ 55 + tax
Registered Teacher	$105 + tax
Registered Practitioner/RAP	$ 80 + tax
Registered Teacher/RAP	$130 + tax
Registered Student/RAP	$60 + tax
Registered Animal Practitioner	$55 + tax

We cannot process or retain on file incomplete applications. Only those applications submitted in full (all required documentation and fee) will be processed.

Mail appropriate forms, copies of ALL Reiki Certificates, plus registration fee plus HST to:

Canadian Reiki Association
24-2350 New St,
Burlington, On L7R 4P8

Canadian Reiki Association

24-2350 New St.
Burlington, ON
L7R 4P8

Tele: 1.800.835.7525
Email: reiki@reiki.ca
Web Site: www.reiki.ca

The Reiki Symbol

Who we are

The Canadian Reiki Association: We provide our members with a national voice and encourage high educational standards. Through our Code of Ethics, we promote ethical practices and teaching. We assist the public with referrals to CRA Registered Practitioners and Teachers and are committed to enlightening and educating our communities about Reiki.

Our Mission Statement

The Canadian Reiki Association, a federally chartered and governed non-profit association, was founded in 1997 to register and represent all professional Canadian Reiki practitioners and/or teachers, of all styles of Reiki. We aim to ensure all registered members work within the Reiki Scope of Practice and perform to the highest standards of professionalism for clients and the public and to disseminate relevant information to all its Members in Good Standing.

What is Reiki?

The knowledge of an invisible energy that flows through all living things has been part of the wisdom of many cultures for thousands of years. The existence of Life Force Energy has been documented by scientific experiments. Medical doctors now considering the role it plays in the functioning of the immune system and the healing process. When our life force energy is low, it impacts our wellbeing and personal health. Reiki is an energy that works on the mental, physical, emotional, and spiritual level.

The technique increases one's life force energy that brings the body back into balance promoting a healthier life.

What we offer the Public

The C.R.A. website provides the public with the names of our Registered Practitioners and Teachers by Province. Our members have agreed to abide by our Code of Ethics and Educational Standards, so clients can be confident that they will be dealt with ethically and in a compassionate manner. They also have the added security of knowing there is an association to bring their concerns or questions to.

Credentials

As recognized by Health Canada, complementary healing modalities are self-regulated. All CRA teachers give students a certificate upon completion of each level. These certificates must be presented to the CRA upon registering as a member of the organization.

Fees for services

The individual Practitioner sets all fees. The CRA does not wish to interfere in the marketing efforts of its members.

What we offer our members

The CRA provides Reiki Practitioners and Teachers with a common voice. Quarterly newsletters help keep members up to date on social, legal, political and other issues from coast to coast.

We are aware of the new policies in place with many Provincial municipalities Standards and Licensing Offices in Canada. They will now only issue business license to Reiki practitioners on two explicit conditions. They must be a member in good standing with the Canadian Reiki Association and present to the licensing office an original letter signed by the President to confirm their membership status.

All members receive a certificate indicating their affiliation to the CRA and they are entitled to use one of the following designations, CRA-SM, CRA-RP, CRA-RT, CRA-SM/RAP, CRA-RP/RAP, CRA-RT/RAP OR CRA-RAP. All members upon request may list their business in the CRA directory and receive the added benefits of our referral network. This listing is available to all potential clients and students who visit our website at www.reiki.ca

We have available in our web store, CRA Logo Pins, Student certificates, "What is Reiki Brochure" and Corporate Information Packages in our on-line store

The Annual General Meeting is open to all Class A members of the CRA, we do welcome Class B & non-members to join us. Upon completion of the business meeting a luncheon is served followed by interesting speakers or entertainment. The mini market is open throughout the day providing unique and interesting selection of products and services.

Newsletter

Quarterly editions of our newsletter are now available in hard copy which can be purchased through our web store.

Insurance Coverage

We are pleased to offer Professional Malpractice and General Liability Insurance to members in good standing. Information is available in the members only section of the website.

Membership Criteria

To apply for membership, complete the appropriate application form then submit it with all required documents and certificates.

Supportive Member

A Supportive Member is someone who may not be attuned to Reiki or the member may be attuned to Reiki and not practicing at this time. They do support the efforts of the C.R.A. and wish to be a part of the movement. Supportive Members will have no voting rights nor will they hold a position on the Board.

Student Member

To qualify for this level of membership, the applicant must be attuned to Reiki and have taken a minimum of Level I (1st degree class and submit a copy of their Reiki certificate, signed copies of the CRA Code of Ethics, the CRA Disciplinary Action Policy, Scope of Practice & Code of Conduct. This level of membership has no voting rights.

Please Note

CRA Student Members may upgrade their membership to Registered Practitioner upon the six month anniversary of receiving Level 1 certification and meeting the current criteria. They must complete 24 required case studies (on CRA forms), or a combination of case studies and CEU forms, totaling twenty four hours of practice time. This is mandatory. CEU forms may be obtained when attending a CRA Reiki Exchange or at a Reiki Practice Night hosted by a CRA Registered Teacher. Upon completion of the six month waiting period and completion of twenty four hours of practice, the Student Member is eligible to apply for Registered Practitioner level.